Vins Rouges

France

Corsica

XX270, Aléria, Cuvée M, Syrah, 2015 $75 ✓
Notes of blackberries, blueberries, crushed violets, spice and hints of mint all flow to a ripe, sexy, concentrated and beautifully textured red. Great finish. RPJ(94)

Vallée de la Loire

Saumur-Champigny Domaine Langlois-Château, 2016 $60

Chinon le Logis de la Bouchardière, Serge et Bruno Sourdais, 2016 $50
Pure, fully ripe cherry and smoke on the nose. Full also on the palate with a beautiful reply and a hint of wood tannins on the tongue. LVC

Les Picasses, Jean-Maurice Raffault, 2016 $70
Richly structured with ripe red fruits. Wen(92)

Sancerre Domaine Delaporte, Chavignol, 2017 $90

Bourgogne

Cuvée Reserve, Maison Roche de Bellene, PN, 2016 $70 ✓
Nicely structured, with brisk acidity and fine, persistent tannins, the fruit is ripe with a fresh, tart edge that lingers on the finish. LVC

Joseph Drouhin, Laforêt, Pinot Noir, 2017 $80
Rich with aromas of red fruit (raspberry, currants, and wild strawberry). On the palate, the wine is pleasant, fruity and refreshing, with light tannins and great elegance. LVC

Marchand-Tawse, Pinot Noir, 47° North, 2015 $115
Lively red cherry flavours, good depth, good tannins and good overall structure. LVC

Côte Chalonnaise Mercurey, 1er Cru, Clos des Myglands, Domaine Faiveley, 2015 $155
Notes of black and red fruits combined with subtle woody and smoky notes. The palate offers the same rich, fruity aromas as the nose. Velvety tannic and smooth finish. LVC

Mercurey, Château de Chamirey, Domaine Devillard, 2016 $115
The nose develops aromas of black fruits (blackcurrant, blueberries) and notes of sweet spices (cinnamon, nutmeg). Powerful wine with souple tannins. LVC

Côte de Nuits-Villages Domaine Moillard, Vieilles Vignes, 2015 $85
 Marchand-Tawse, 2013 $100

Expect it to offer classic elegance with earth and mineral underlying refined cherry fruit with tightly interwoven oak influence. LVC

Côte de Nuits Chambolle-Musigny, 1er Cru, les Baudes, Maison Roche de Bellene, 2013 $325

LE SÉLECT BISTRO – OCTOBER 2019

Côte de Nuits	Chambolle-Musigny, Confuron-Cotetidot, 2014 Floral with underlying liquorice notes, minerality and complex spice. Mostly red berries. Medium weight, with a complex profile. Tim Atkin MW(92)	$200
	Chambolle-Musigny, Faiveley, les Charmes, 2013 Classic Chambolle with floral and delicate flavour with silky tannins. LVC	$330
	Chambolle-Musigny, les Cras, Domaine Antonin Guyon, 2012	$200
	Clos des Porrets-St-Georges, Henri Gouges, 2012 Fantastic bouquet that sprints out of the blocks: blackberry, dark cherries and blood orange. The palate is very well-balanced with succulent ripe red berry fruit. RPJ(94)	$200
	Gevrey-Chambertin, 1er Cru, la Combe aux Moines, Dominique Gallois, 2013 Positively gorgeous mouth feel thanks to relatively fine-grained tannins shaping the sleekly powerful and intense finish that offers a refreshing salinity. Allen Meadow(93)	$250
	Gevrey-Chambertin, Bastion de l'Oratoire, Chanson, 2014	$195
	Gevrey-Chambertin, Confuron-Cotetidot, 2014 Cool and intense with loads of refreshing minerality. Fantastic complexity, and the fine tannins help extend the already long finish. Tim Atkin MW(92)	$200
	Gevrey-Chambertin, Roche de Bellene, 2001 Aromatic prime, earthy, exotically spicy, still firm. Good length and complexity. All of the ageing has been done in the cellar. Ready to drink. John Szabo (92)	$250
	Marsannay, Domaine Faiveley, 2015 Intense ruby red hue. It reveals aromas of red fruits and prune on the nose. The palate is fruity with direct tannins and excellent length on the finish. LVC	$100
	Marsannay, Longeroies, René Bouvier, 2014 This rich, almost jammy wine is given structure by the darkly tannic character. The dry, toasty structure is pulled forward by the red-berry acidity. Wen(91)	$115
	Marsannay, Marchand-Tawse, 2015	$130
	Morey-Saint-Denis, Aux Chéseaux, Domaine Odoul-Coquard, 2015 Very pure, with cherry, raspberry and violet aromas and flavours clinging to the vibrant acidity and refined tannins. The silky texture gives way to firm tannins at the end. WS(94)	$195
	Nuits-Saint-Georges, 1er Cru, Aux Boudots, Aurélien Verdet, 2013 It features violet, black currant, blackberry and mineral aromas and flavours. Extremely long finish. WS(94)	$250
	Nuits-Saint-Georges, Domaine Roche de Bellene, 2016 Richly structured. Its tannins and firm fruit add to the concentration from these low-yielding vines. Ripe red fruits are balanced by good acidity. LVC	$190
	Nuits-St-Georges, 1er Cru, Perrières, Marchand-Tawse, 2012	$255

	Aloxe-Corton, 1er Cru, les Chaillots, Domaine d'Arthuis, 2012	$170
	Aloxe-Corton, Bouchard Père & Fils, 2015 Originating in the Côte de Beaune but located on the border with the Côte de Nuits, this wine is an interesting blend of structure and elegance. LVC	$165
	Auxey-Duresses, Monopole, Clos du Moulin aux Moines, 2015	$120
	Beaune, 1er Cru, les Cents Vignes, Clos du Moulin aux Moines, 2016	$240
	Beaune-Bressandes, 1er Cru, Albert Morot, 2015 Black raspberry, chocolate cake, and leather. Very rich, and sweet. Not heavy or extreme. The ripeness has given this wine a typical finesse and silkiness. Vinous.com(92)	$210
	Beaune-Grèves, Grand Vin, Enfant Jésus, Bouchard, 2014 Smoky and full of fruit and sweet, balanced tannins. The dense structure behind the fruit promises good aging. Wen(94)	$300
	Corton, Grand Cru, Pascal Marchand, 2009	$350
	Corton-Bressandes, Grand Cru, Dubreuil-Fontaine, 2011 There is fine richness and excellent intensity to the mineral-driven middle weight flavours that display plenty of Corton muscle. Allen Meadows(92)	$230
	Corton-Perrières, Grand Cru, Dubreuil-Fontaine, 2012	$200
	Hautes Côtes de Beaune, Blason de Bourgogne, 2017 This example is quite approachable, with black cherry fruit and lightly spicy shading. It suits salmon, braised rabbit or duck. LVC.	$65
	Hautes-Côtes de Beaune, Magnien, 2015	$75
	Pernand-Vergelesses, André Goichot, 2015	$110
	Pommard, 1er Cru, Bouchard Père & Fils, 2015 Dense and saturated with black cherry, blackberry and earth flavours. Iron and stone elements work their way in as this remains square and unyielding for now. WS(92)	$225

Organic & Biodynamic Wines

The practice of biodynamics in viticulture has become popular in recent years. The principles of biodynamics are based on a spiritual and practical philosophy called anthroposophy which is based on the understanding of the ecological, the energetic, and the spiritual in nature.

Bin Ends

Vins Rouges

France

Beaujolais Brouilly, Georges Dubœuf, 2017 Bin End $40
was $50

Moulin-à-Vent, Château des Jacques, Louis Jadot, 2013 Bin End $85
was $95

Shows some muscle, with concentrated cherry compote, blackberry and spice flavours, structured by moderate tannins. Licorice and moccha on the lingering finish. WS(91)

Bordeaux Pessac-Léognan, Château Haut-Brion, 1er Grand Cru Classé, 1983 Bin End $625
was $750

Soft and succulent. Typical. Medium body and plenty of luscious, concentrated fruit, smooth and velvety-textured finish. RPJ(91). Ready to drink and priced accordingly.

España

Priorat Clos Figueres, 2005 Bin End $200
was $250

It delivers a complex perfume of smoky oak, spice box, black cherry, and blueberry. This leads to a dense, opulent wine that still manages to retain some elegance. RPJ(96)

Australia

South Australia McLaren Vale, Hardys, Eileen Hardy, Shiraz, 1999 Bin End $215
was $245

Vins Blancs

Canada

Niagara Peninsula Tawse Winery, Robyn's Block Chardonnay, 2013 Bin End $60
was $80

Medium to full body, fairly rounded yet founded on firm acidity and minerality, which really shows on the finish. The 'Beefiest' and richest of the Tawse chardonnays. WA(92)
